DATED : 12/07/06

P.C.:-

. By this petition, petitioner has questioned the correctness of Government Resolution dated 10th March, 2005. Main contention is that the this resolution revises certain norms of recruitment in relations to the persons working without pay-basics. Earlier in 1996 such candidates were permitted three changes to clear prescribed eligibility clause and to be employed on permanent basis. After careful consideration of facts and circumstances, fresh resolution is passed on 10th March, 2005, giving adequate reasons why the earlier clause granting three chances is not to be incorporated. Under such circumstances, we see no reason to interfere. Petition is rejected.
